G.Z.
CARE OF J.Z.

Dear G.Z.

Reconsideration
Filed: June 4, 2009

Our record reveals that you live with J.Z. who is the head of the household. There are 2 people in the household. Mr. J.Z. verifies that the average monthly amount of the household expenses is $2240.00. Your pro rata share of the household expenses is $1120.00 per month and your income from SSI is $421.82. Because your monthly income is not sufficient to pay your pro rata share of current household operating expenses, you would not have enough funds to repay the loan of ISM. After a careful consideration we have determined that your repayment plan is not feasible and that your loan is not bona fide. As a result, we affirm our initial determination that you receive in-kind support and maintenance in the value of $224.66 every month.

If You Disagree With The Decision

If you disagree with this decision, you have the right to request a hearing. A person who has not seen your case before will look at it. That person is an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). The ALJ will review your case again and look at any new facts you have before deciding your case.

- You have 60 days to ask for a hearing.
- The 60 days start the day after you receive this letter. We assume you got this letter 5 days after the date on it unless you show us that you did not get it within the 5-day period.
- You must have a good reason if you wait more than 60 days to ask for a hearing.
- You have to ask for a hearing in writing. We will ask you to sign a form HA-501-U5, called "Request for Hearing." Contact one of our offices if you want help.

Please read the enclosed pamphlet, "Your Right to an Administrative Law Judge Hearing and Appeals Council Review of Your Social Security Case." It contains more information about the hearing.

How The Hearing Process Works

If we send your case for a hearing, the ALJ will mail you a letter at least 20 days before the hearing to tell you its date, time and place. The letter will explain the law in your case and tell you what has to be decided. Since the ALJ will review all the facts in your case, it is important that you give us any new facts as soon as you can.

The hearing is your chance to tell the ALJ why you disagree with the decision in your case. You can give the ALJ new evidence and bring people to testify for you. The ALJ also can require people to bring important papers to your hearing and give facts about your case. You can question these people at your hearing.

It Is Important To Go To The Hearing

It is very important that you go to the hearing. If for any reason you can't go, contact the ALJ as soon as possible before the hearing and explain why. The ALJ will reschedule the hearing if you have a good reason.

If you don't go to the hearing and don't have a good reason for not going, the ALJ may dismiss your request for a hearing.

If You Want Help With Your Appeal

You can have a friend, representative or someone else help you. There are groups that can help you find a representative or give you free legal services if you qualify. There also are representatives who do not charge unless you win your appeal. Your Social Security office has a list of groups that can help you with your appeal.

If you get someone to help you, you should let us know. If you hire someone, we must approve the fee before he or she can collect it.

If You Have Any Questions
